

🍷 Heraldic Ordinaries, Divisions & Arrangements 🍷

	Ordinary A ~	Division Per ~	Arranged In ~	Orientation ~wise		Ordinary A ~	Division Per ~	Arranged In ~	Orientation In ~		Ordinary A ~	Location In ~	Orientation To ~
Fess					Cross					Chief
Pale					Saltire					Base
Bend					Chevron					Dexter
Bend Sinister					Chevron Inverted					Sinister
					Pall					Canton
					Pall Inverted					Sinister Canton

* There are a few special cases where blazons don't follow the patterns shown above:

A cross-wise division is blazoned "quarterly."

The dexter-side ordinary is blazoned a "tierce," and the sinister a "tierce sinister."

Arrangements may also be blazoned by number, so three charges in chevron are "one and two," or if in chevron inverted, "two and one."

