

♥ Heraldic Tincture Hexcodes ♥

Any set of colors can be used for armory if they can be unambiguously interpreted as heraldic tinctures.

Below are examples of palettes used by some digital heralric artists that you can use as starting points.

Simple, bold colors can simplify the submission process, but it's also good to submit colors that reflect what will actually be used.

It's not uncommon to use different palettes in different contexts or for different arms, depending on the project and bearer's tastes.
